of the Rajah of Mysore

Bangalore

Sir,

A surplus of Canteenage Rupees 6525-11- a.

having accumulated from the allowance made to Pagodas and Chattrums attached to this Division, I have the honor to request the sanction of the Commissioner to my disposing of a portion of this sum to the erection of a commodious Chattrum at Tumbehully, midway between Colar and Mooliwagul.

2. As the Road is much frequented by Travellers and is moreover, the direct Road to Lingsugoor, from most parts of Mysore and the Deccan, I should suppose the Chattrum

Division, would be a building of the description could be of greater public utility.
